LISTENING: TAPESCRIPT

This is the English Listening Examination. There are three parts to the test.

Look at the instructions for Part One.

Pause 05"

Part I

You will hear five short conversations. There is one question for each conversation. For questions 1 – 5, put a tick under the right answer. You will hear each conversation twice.

Pause 05"

1. Which is Anna's family?

Man: Tell me about your family, Anna.
Anna: Well, my father's tall with dark hair and my mother's just the opposite. She's short and blonde. Then there's my brother.
Man: Is he older than you?
Anna: He's five years younger.

2. What time does the film start?

Ray: Hello?
Helen: Hello, Ray? It's Helen. About tonight ...
Ray: Ah, yes. The film begins at quarter past eight.
Helen: OK. So, I'll meet you outside the cinema ... erm ... about a quarter to eight?
Ray: All right, see you then.

3. How did Fred first hear about the fire?

Woman: Fred, did you hear about the fire? I've just watched the news on television.
Fred: Yeah, Sandra told me about it. She said it was on the radio, too!
Woman: Oh, I see.

4. How much are the shoes?

Woman: Are these white shoes in the sale?
Man: Yes. They're £16.50 cheaper this week.
Woman: Oh, so they're £15.60?
Man: That's right.
Woman: OK. I'll take them.

5. Where is the bank?

Woman: Excuse me, Sir. Could you tell me where the nearest bank is?
Man: Yes, of course. Go straight up this road and – let me see – take the first turning on the right. No, sorry, it's the second turning.
Woman: I see.
Man: Then go along the road and you'll see a restaurant on the right hand side. The bank is just opposite. You can't miss it.

Part II

Listen to Teresa talking to Paul about presents for his family. What is she going to buy for each person? For tasks 6 – 10, write a letter (A – H) next to each person. You will hear the conversation twice.

Teresa: Paul ... as I'm visiting your family at Christmas, I'd like to buy them some presents.
Paul: Oh, that's nice.
Teresa: Have you got any ideas?
Paul: Well, my sister Angie likes ghost stories, so buy her something to read, and my brother John really enjoys sport, so something to do with football.
Teresa: How about a football shirt?
Paul: Fine.
Teresa: All right. Now, what about your parents? What are they interested in?
Paul: Let's see ... well, my mother likes classical music and going to the theatre. My father watches television all the time.
Teresa: So I can get her a CD and ... er ... him a DVD.
Paul: The CD is a good idea, but I'm not sure about the DVD.
Teresa: Would he like to go to the movies?
Paul: Oh yes, he'd like that.
Teresa: Fine. That only leaves you, Paul – what would you like for Christmas?
Paul: Well, I've always wanted to go back to our restaurant with you one day.
Teresa: What a great idea!

You will hear some information about a medical centre. Listen and complete tasks 11 – 15. You will hear the information twice.

This is Mill House Medical Centre. The Medical Centre is closed until tomorrow morning, but here is some important information. Our Medical Centre is open from six-thirty a.m. to seven-thirty p.m. If you wish to see one of our doctors please phone us tomorrow. The number is seven nine three double 0 two five.

Please note we are always very busy early in the mornings so please do not phone before eight-thirty.

If you want to get medicine, Paisley Chemist's Shop, that's P – A – I – S – L – E – Y, is open until eleven-thirty p.m. every evening this week, including Sunday. To get there, take the 77 bus to High Street and then it's just a two minutes' walk down the hill. If you need to see a doctor now, please go to King George Hospital. They are open twenty-four hours a day for accidents and emergencies.

Thank you for calling Mill House Medical Centre. Our doctors and nurses will be pleased to answer any more of your questions tomorrow.
